CHAIRMAN AND PRINCIPAL OWNER MARK ATTANASIO

The 2013 season is the ninth for Mark Attanasio as Chairman and Principal Owner of the Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club.

The Brewers won 29 of their final 42 games last season, putting them within reach of a Wild Card playoff spot, though they fell 5.0 games short. The Brewers led the National League in runs scored (776), home runs (202) and stolen bases (158) in 2012, a feat last accomplished 16 years ago by the Colorado Rockies. The home run total marked the fifth time in Club history that the team hit more than 200 homers in a season, a record set in 2007 with 231. In addition, the Brewers came within just two strikeouts of tying an all-time Major League record by a pitching staff, set by the Chicago Cubs when they recorded 1,404 during the 2003 season.

Attanasio is committed to building on these accomplishments from last season by continuing to deliver on the four cornerstone pledges he made to the Brewers team and community when he officially bought the franchise on January 13, 2005:

1. FIELDING A PERENIALLY COMPETITIVE TEAM

Attanasio continues to work closely with President of Baseball Operations and General Manager Doug Melvin, Vice President and Assistant General Manager Gord Ash, and the baseball operations staff to improve a competitive team. Starting pitchers returning for the 2013 season are Yovani Gallardo, Marco Estrada, Chris Narveson, Mike Fiers, Wily Peralta and Mark Rogers. The bullpen will be bolstered by the additions of veterans Tom Gorzelanny, Michael Gonzalez and Burke Badenhop to the returning squad, which includes John Axford and Jim Henderson. The 2013 Brewers position players will feature current and past All-Stars Ryan Braun, Rickie Weeks, Corey Hart and Aramis Ramirez as well as returning starters Jonathan Lucroy, Norichika Aoki, Carlos Gomez and Jean Segura.

2. DELIVERING THE BEST FAN EXPERIENCE POSSIBLE, WHETHER AT MILLER PARK, THROUGH BROADCASTS OR OVER THE INTERNET

Attanasio has made the fan experience a priority, and with more than 2.8 million fans attending Brewers home games in 2012, Miller Park once again placed among the best in attendance in the National League. Last season marked the sixth consecutive year that more than 2.75 million fans came through the turnstiles, which makes the Brewers one of just nine teams in all of baseball to achieve that consistent level of fan attendance. The team also posted strong ratings for its broadcasts and hits on its website.

This offseason, the Brewers unveiled plans for a new Miller Park group entertainment area, The Miller Lite Party Deck, which will be situated above the right field loge bleachers. The area will feature approximately 1,400 square feet of entertaining space and will be available for groups of up to 70 for select home games. Last August, Miller Park dedicated a new statue of fan-favorite and Hall of Fame play-by-play announcer, Bob Uecker, at the Home Plate Gate just outside the stadium entrance. His statue now stands among those of Hank Aaron, Robin Yount, and Commissioner Allan H. "Bud" Selig, which celebrate and honor legends of the Brewers franchise.

3. REMAINING A LEADER IN THE COMMUNITY

Attanasio remains committed to and personally involved with Brewers Community Foundation, the charitable arm of the Club, as it continues to grow since its 2010 re-branding. Brewers Community Foundation raised more than $3.5 million over the course of the 2012 season and provided significant cash and in-kind donations to more than 1,200 area non-profit organizations that focus on health, education, recreation and basic needs. In addition to fans' support, every single uniformed Brewers player and executive of the Club's front office staff contributed to Brewers Community Foundation in 2012. Brewers Community Foundation has also partnered with several local foundations and non-profits to establish programming and events that positively impact critical community needs.

4. BEING AN ORGANIZATION WHERE PEOPLE WANT TO WORK, WHETHER ON THE FIELD OR BEHIND THE SCENES

Attanasio has continued to deliver on his commitment to make the Brewers organization one of the best places to work in Greater Milwaukee as well as in all of sports. During his eight years as principal owner, the Club has grown as a desirable destination for some of baseball's top players, front office personnel and business executives. Under Attanasio's leadership, the corporate culture has focused on best practices and achieving excellent results across all facets of the Club. Moreover, employees are provided with training and career development as well as opportunities to participate in the Club's community outreach.

BEYOND THE BREWERS

In addition to his role as chairman and principal owner, Attanasio has been an accomplished investment management executive for more than 25 years. He is a co-founder and serves as a managing partner of Crescent Capital Group, Inc., an employee-owned Los Angeles-based asset management firm.

Attanasio holds positions on several not-for-profit boards in Milwaukee as well as elsewhere around the U.S., including the Board of Trustees of Heal the Bay, The Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA), The United Way of Milwaukee, The Greater Milwaukee Committee, Harvard-Westlake School and the advisory board of Columbia University School of Law. In addition, Attanasio is a member of the Major League Baseball Ownership, Labor Policy, Finance, Money Management and Diversity Committees, and was named by Los Angeles Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa to the blue-ribbon commission to analyze bringing the National Football League to downtown Los Angeles.

Attanasio is also an investor in the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Attanasio received his A.B. from Brown University and his J.D. from the Columbia University School of Law. He and his wife Debbie have two sons.

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER RICK SCHLESINGER

Rick Schlesinger recently completed his 10th season with the Milwaukee Brewers and second in his role as chief operating officer. He was named to his current position on January 24, 2011 after previously serving as executive vice president of business operations. Schlesinger oversees the Club's business affairs, including sponsorships, marketing, ticket sales, guest services, public relations, community relations, broadcasting and communications.

Since Schlesinger joined the Brewers, attendance for home games has increased 74%, from 1.7 million in 2003 (25th in MLB) to an average of over 2.95 million over the past five seasons. This past season, the team topped 2.8 million tickets sold, making the Brewers one of just nine MLB teams to eclipse 2.75 million in attendance for each of the last six years. The Club also set an all-time franchise record for season ticket sales in 2012, more than doubling the number of season sales since he began his service with the team.

Under Schlesinger's guidance, the Club has enhanced the fan experience at Miller Park on numerous fronts. The 2013 season will continue that trend with construction of the new Miller Life Party Deck and renovations to the Dew Deck and SKYY Lounge.

Other recent enhancements at Miller Park under Schlesinger include the installation of one of baseball's largest and advanced scoreboards; statues honoring Brewers' legend Bob Uecker and MLB Commissioner and former Brewers owner Bud Selig; upgrades and new construction for various retail outlets; construction of the Harley-Davidson Deck, Stadium Club, Gehl Club, U.S. Cellular Power Playground and three Brewers party suites; plus complete re-designs of Miller Park's Founder's Suites and Club Level suites, Miller Park function rooms and media interview room.

Schlesinger's efforts to upgrade the fan experience at Miller Park have been well received both locally and nationally. In recent years, the Brewers and Miller Park have been recognized by both fans and media in annual polling and surveys. Most recently, a fan vote on ESPN.com rated Miller Park as "Major League Baseball's Best Ballpark" (summer 2012). In addition, ESPN The Magazine has ranked the Brewers in the top quarter of all Major League sports franchises the last four seasons in its annual "Ultimate Franchise Standings." In 2010 and 2011 rankings, the team finished second out of all 122 ranked teams in the category of "Most Affordable," and in 2012 the Brewers placed eighth overall in "Stadium Experience." In 2009, the organization received a high honor in being named one of five finalists for the Sports Business Journal's "Professional Sports Team of the Year" award, and in the two most recent SI.com "Fan Value Index" surveys, the Brewers achieved top marks for the entire Miller Park experience.

Under Schlesinger's leadership, the Brewers have expanded their reach into the community. Most significantly, the organization re-branded its Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. philanthropic arm in 2010 and created several new impact initiatives to continue building fundraising efforts to benefit area causes. Recent efforts have also included the creation of the "Brewers Community Foundation Week," (a week designated to highlight the many efforts of the Milwaukee Brewers' contributions to the community), "Beyond The Diamond" (an umbrella program that involves players, coaches and staff in key local philanthropic causes), and "Brewers Heritage Games" (where the team wears alternate uniforms and hosts cultural activities to celebrate the great ethnic diversity of Southeast Wisconsin).

On the corporate marketing front, the Brewers have significantly expanded their reach in recent years. Since 2005 alone, sponsorship revenue has increased over 150% and the total number of Brewers sponsors/partners has more than doubled. The Club has achieved similar success in retail and concession sales.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Schlesinger served as the vice president, business and legal affairs/assistant general manager for the Anaheim Angels from 1998-2002 after going to Anaheim Sports, Inc. (ASI) from Walt Disney Pictures and Television. Schlesinger handled all contract and legal matters for ASI, the Angels and the NHL's Mighty Ducks, and worked on all contractual and arbitration issues for the Baseball Club.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1983, Schlesinger received his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School (Cum Laude) in 1986. After graduating from Harvard, Schlesinger spent six years at the Los Angeles law firm of Latham and Watkins before joining Disney.

Active in the community, Schlesinger serves on the boards of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and the University Club of Milwaukee, and is a member of the Greater Milwaukee Committee that contributes to the cultural and economic base of the Milwaukee Metropolitan area. He has also served as an adjunct professor at Marquette University Law School, where he taught a class in sports law.

Schlesinger is a native of Bayside, Wisconsin, and resides in Milwaukee. He has three children - daughter Caitlin and sons Bradley and Sam.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION BOB QUINN

Bob Quinn, with over 19 years of experience in professional baseball, begins his 11th season in a senior business executive role with the Brewers.

Quinn joined the Brewers on January 3, 2003 as senior vice president and chief financial officer before being promoted to his current role on July 19, 2007. A fourth-generation baseball executive, Quinn oversees the financial operations of the Brewers as well as human resources, information systems, Miller Park operations, Arizona Spring Training operations and business administration. Quinn plays a lead role in creating the annual and long-range business and financial plan for the Brewers that has allowed the team to stay competitive on the field, and provided the resources to continuously enhance the fan experience at Miller Park. He was instrumental in the creation of new fan enhancements at Miller Park as well as significant changes in game entertainment, ticket packages and promotions.

Quinn also initiated several programs that have been critical to the Brewers' customer service practices. In 2007, he began the "Trading Places" program, where team management worked on the frontlines as concession workers, parking attendants, ticket takers, ushers and ballpark maintenance workers to sample the experience from the perspective of both event staff and fans. The past six years he has led the "Fans First" effort, with Brewers' front office executives randomly awarding fans each night with ticket upgrades, autographed items and once-in-a-lifetime entertainment experiences.

During his tenure, the Brewers have posted significant gains in all areas of the business operations. Under Quinn's leadership, the team has established franchise attendance records, peaking at over three million fans in three of the past five seasons, including a franchise record of nearly 3.1 million in 2011. The Club has also posted dramatically increased sales and revenue in merchandise, concessions and team sponsorships. With these gains, the Brewers in 2009 were named a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's "Professional Sports Team of the Year" award. The team also placed at or near the top in multiple other fan, media and industry surveys from 2005 through 2012, including Miller Park being named "Major League Baseball's Best Ballpark" in a fan vote last summer on ESPN.com.

Prior to coming to Milwaukee, Quinn spent nine years with the San Francisco Giants from 1994-2002, last serving as vice president of finance. He served in many capacities and contributed in all areas of the business throughout his tenure. He also played an instrumental role in the private financing and construction of AT&T Park.

Quinn graduated from Marquette University in 1990 with a degree in accounting and worked for the public accounting firm Price Waterhouse in Milwaukee and San Francisco before joining the Giants.

In addition to his accomplishments, Quinn continues a family legacy and influence in professional baseball, and in professional sports, as a member of one of the game's most celebrated multi-generational families. Covering over 280 combined years of experience, tradition and dedication to professional sports and professional baseball, Quinn comes from a long line of front office sports executives. His father, Robert E. Quinn, was general manager for the San Francisco Giants, New York Yankees and Cincinnati Reds (including the 1990 World Champions). Quinn's grandfather, John Quinn, was general manager of the Boston and Milwaukee Braves (including the 1957 World Champions) and of the Philadelphia Phillies. His great grandfather, J.A. Quinn, was general manager for the St. Louis Browns, Brooklyn Dodgers, Boston Red Sox and Boston Braves, and served as the first curator of the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York.

Quinn's honors and awards include being named as Milwaukee's "2008 CFO of the Year" by The Business Journal. In January 2007, he was honored with the Young Alumnus Award, conferred through the College of Business Administration of Marquette University. In 2005, he was named to The Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" list, a prestigious honor bestowed upon those who demonstrate leadership and accomplishments in their profession and community.

In 2012, Quinn led instruction for a master's course in "Sports Leadership Specialization" at Marquette for the College of Professional Studies.

Quinn serves as vice president and treasurer of the Brewers Community Foundation, Inc., the Club's philanthropic arm which provides financial and other support for youth recreation, scholarships and education throughout Wisconsin. The Foundation was re-branded in 2010 and has contributed financial and in-kind support to hundreds of area organizations. He is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and serves as a mentor to college students in the area.

Quinn has played lead guitar in several rock bands, culminating in appearances at Milwaukee's Summerfest Music Festival several times in recent years.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Quinn resides with his wife Amy and their two daughters, Carolyn and Katie, in Brookfield, Wisconsin.

PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS - GENERAL MANAGER DOUG MELVIN

Doug Melvin joined the Brewers on September 26, 2002 as the eighth general manager in franchise history. On May 8, 2012, the team announced a contract extension through the 2015 season along with a promotion to president of baseball operations and general manager.

Melvin has worked from the bottom up to develop a winning culture with the Brewers. During his 10-year tenure, he has recorded 801 regular-season wins and two postseason berths, including a 2011 National League Central Division championship. The team has produced winning records in four of the last six seasons and in each of the last two campaigns.

Melvin was named 2011 Major League Executive of the Year by Baseball America after the team won a franchise-record 96 games on the way to its first division title since 1982. In addition, he was awarded Co-Executive of the Year by The Sporting News that season along with Detroit's Dave Dombrowski.

Melvin was able to ink one of the Brewers' homegrown stars, Ryan Braun, to a contract extension during the 2011 season. The five-time All-Star and 2011 National League MVP is signed through 2020, marking the longest contract in franchise history. After a successful 2011, Melvin and his staff made a number of free-agent signings to keep the team strong in 2012, including third baseman Aramis Ramirez and Japanese outfielder Norichika Aoki.

During the 2012 season, Melvin acquired three top prospects from the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim in exchange for pitcher Zack Greinke. One of those acquisitions, starting shortstop Jean Segura, joined the Brewers in early August and finished the year with the team. Following the 2012 season, Melvin traded for pitcher Burke Badenhop and signed free-agent pitchers Tom Gorzelanny and Michael Gonzalez to strengthen the bullpen.

In 2008, Melvin helped bring the franchise its first postseason berth in 26 years as the team finished 90-72 to capture the National League Wild Card. The mid-season acquisition of CC Sabathia from Cleveland was key to the 2008 postseason run and will go down as one of the biggest trades in franchise history.

In 2007, the team posted its first winning record since 1992 as it went 83-79 and finished just 2.0 games behind the Cubs in the National League Central. That offseason, Melvin added a number of veterans who played key roles in 2008, a group that included outfielder Mike Cameron, catcher Jason Kendall and pitcher Salomon Torres.

The organization's farm system has produced a number of players who have contributed greatly to the Major League team since Melvin joined the Brewers. In addition to Ryan Braun, who was selected in the first round of the 2005 First-Year Player Draft, the system has produced All-Stars Corey Hart, Yovani Gallardo and Rickie Weeks along with starting catcher Jonathan Lucroy, who signed a five-year contract extension in March 2012. Homegrown pitchers Mike Fiers, Wily Peralta and Mark Rogers are also expected to be major contributors to the 2013 team.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Melvin, 60, was the general manager of the Texas Rangers from 1996-2001. He helped the Rangers earn their first postseason appearance ever in 1996. Under his direction, the team won the American League West three times. Melvin was hired in Texas by former President George W. Bush and former United States Ambassador to Japan Tom Schieffer.

Before joining the Rangers, Melvin spent nine years in the Baltimore Orioles organization as a special assistant to owner Edward Bennett Williams and General Manager Hank Peters beginning in 1986. He became director of player personnel in charge of minor league operations in November 1987 and added the title of assistant general manager under Executive Vice President and General Manager Roland Hemond in 1988.

Melvin worked for the New York Yankees from 1979-85 following his retirement as an active player. He pitched batting practice and coordinated advance scouting reports for the Major League coaching staff, earning a promotion to scouting director in 1985. In that role, he and Fred Ferreira were responsible for signing All-Star Bernie Williams.

Highly decorated, Melvin was named American League Executive of the Year by Baseball America in 1996 and Major League Executive of the Year by the same publication in 1998 and 2011. He also earned that award from The Sporting News in 1996 and 2011. Melvin's most recent honor was bestowed upon him on June 23, 2012 as he was inducted into the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame. He is already a member of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame (1997) and the Chatham, Ontario, Sports Hall of Fame (2000).

Melvin is one of only five Canadian natives to ever serve as a Major League general manager, joining George Selkirk (Washington), Murray Cook (New York-AL, Montreal and Cincinnati), Gord Ash (Toronto) and Alex Anthopoulos (Toronto). Ash is currently the assistant general manager of the Brewers.

As a player, Melvin pitched for six seasons in the minor leagues for Pittsburgh and the Yankees, going 29-19 with a 3.43 ERA. He was signed by Pittsburgh in 1972 and pitched two years before being released. After sitting out 1974 with a leg injury, he was signed by the Yankees by Pat Gillick and played four more years.

The Chatham, Ontario native played football, basketball and hockey at Chatham Kent Secondary School and was selected to the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. He still holds the school's basketball record with 55 points in one game. He played in a number of amateur baseball leagues in his hometown and credits another Chatham native, Hall-of-Famer Ferguson Jenkins, with influencing him to pursue his pro baseball career.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS MILLER PARK

FRONT OFFICE

The Milwaukee Brewers take pride in offering the best overall experience for every fan who attends a game. Central to the quality of the fan experience is the team's jewel of a ballpark, Miller Park.

Year in and year out, the Brewers' fan experience has received honors from both fans and media in annual polling and surveys. In 2012, a fan vote on ESPN.com rated Miller Park as "Major League Baseball's Best Ballpark." In addition, ESPN the Magazine has ranked the Brewers in the top quarter of all Major League sports franchises in the last four seasons in its annual "Ultimate Franchise Standings." In 2012, Team Marketing Report stated in their annual "Fan Cost Index" survey that the Brewers ranked as the seventh-most affordable fan experience in Major League Baseball.

One of the keys to Miller Park's popularity is that it is a dynamic facility that has adapted to changing fan tastes in each of its 12 seasons. Updates to the ballpark in 2013 include the Miller Lite Party Deck and renovations to the Dew Deck and the SKYY Lounge on the Club Level (formerly known as the Home Plate Lounge).

In 2011, the Brewers debuted a state-of-the-art, high-definition scoreboard at Miller Park. At 5,940 square feet, it is one of the largest scoreboards in Major League Baseball. It is also the third, true 1080, high-definition scoreboard in baseball.

The Brewers continue to make updates to the ballpark that make it one of the best venues in Major League Baseball and a major destination in the City of Milwaukee and State of Wisconsin. Other recent improvements at Miller Park include the Brewers Team Store on the Club Level (2012); a new party suite honoring the 2011 Brewers (2012); the Brewers Team Store on the Terrace Level (2009); the outdoor Plaza Pavilion (2009); the new Brewers Team Store by Majestic (2009); the renovation of 43 Club Level suites (2009); the Harley-Davidson Deck (2009); the renovation of the Stadium Club (2008); the U.S. Cellular Power Playground (2008); the Gehl Club (2007) and the ATI Club (2007).

Miller Park's debut dates to April 6, 2001. In front of the President of the United States, the Commissioner of Baseball and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning. On that day, President George W. Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the State of Wisconsin. He, along with Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, threw out ceremonial first pitches prior to the game.

In its inaugural season, Miller Park was not only the home to Brewers baseball. While the team was away, the park played host to a pair of major concerts, the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by the band N'Sync in July. Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans each and earned rave reviews from the performers and fans alike.

This was just the beginning. The Brewers continued to make Miller Park the home for a wide variety of events in 2002. The ballpark hosted the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game, Milwaukee's third All-Star contest and its first since 1975.

In 2003, legendary rocker Bruce Springsteen brought his E Street Band to Miller Park for the first time for a memorable performance in front of more than 30,000 fans. The ballpark also hosted the filming of the movie Mr. 3000, starring Bernie Mac and Angela Bassett, as well as the Miller Lite Masters Professional Bowlers Association Finals and one of the midwest's largest youth chess tournaments.

In August 2005, Miller Park played host to the 150th birthday party for its namesake, the Miller Brewing Company. A mini-village was built on the field along with a stage where rocker Bon Jovi played to a capacity crowd. And in 2008, H.O.G. (the Harley Owners Group) celebrated its 25th anniversary with a spectacular rally of 45,000 motorcycle enthusiasts and a concert featuring Kid Rock in the Miller

Park parking lots.

Most recently, in October 2010, Miller Park hosted the 25th Anniversary Farm Aid Benefit Concert, featuring performances by such luminaries as Neil Young, Willie Nelson, Dave Matthews and John Mellencamp. This summer, Kenny Chesney will play to a sold-out crowd.

On Saturday, October 4, 2008, the ballpark played host to its first-ever Postseason game. A frenzied sellout crowd of 43,992 watched the Brewers defeat the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-1, in Game 3 of the NLDS. Hall of Fame Brewers broadcaster Bob Uecker threw out the ceremonial first pitch to a thunderous roar. More Postseason games were played at Miller Park in 2011 as the team reached the NLCS for the first time in franchise history.

Miller Park has drawn over 30 million visitors in its first 12 seasons. That was highlighted by a record 3,071,373 for Brewers baseball in 2011, which established the all-time Milwaukee baseball record for attendance. The Brewers have now drawn 3 million-plus fans in three of the last five seasons.

Miller Park has been a significant cog in the resurgence of Milwaukee as a tourist destination. Along with the Calatrava wing of the Milwaukee Art Museum, the Delta Center, Milwaukee Public Market and the Harley-Davidson Museum, Miller Park has helped put Milwaukee on the map as a great place to visit.

TOURS

Experience the magnificence of Miller Park while enjoying an exclusive tour that includes a number of behind-the-scenes attractions. Daily tours run from April through September and cover more than one-half mile and 70 minutes. All tours are wheelchair accessible. Groups of 20 or more must make reservations at least two weeks in advance. Admission for the Miller Park tour is $10.00 for adults and $6.00 for children 12 and under and senior citizens. Special rates are also available for youth groups.

Tours are not offered when the Brewers play day games at Miller Park. For more information on tours, including times, please call the Miller Park Tour Hotline at (414) 902-4005.

MILLER PARK WALK OF FAME

The Miller Park Walk of Fame commemorates some of the greatest names in Milwaukee baseball history. It is located on the plaza area outside the ballpark by the statues of Robin Yount, Hank Aaron, Commissioner Allan H. "Bud" Selig and Bob Uecker. Each inductee is honored with a granite-shaped home plate set in the ground.

Started in Miller Park's inaugural season of 2001, the Walk of Fame has welcomed 16 inductees going into the 2013 season. Former Braves shortstop Johnny Logan will be the 17th inductee as he was elected to the Walk of Fame in January. The first class in 2001 included Hank Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount.

Beginning in 2006, balloting changed to follow the National Baseball Hall of Fame guidelines with candidates needing 75% of the vote for election. Voting rules changed again in 2013, allowing candidates with 65% of the vote to be elected. In 2007, former Milwaukee Braves players were added to the ballot in an effort to honor the strong baseball tradition of the city. The first year, Eddie Mathews, Warren Spahn and former GM John Quinn were elected.

HELFAER FIELD:

WISCONSIN'S PREMIER YOUTH BASEBALL FACILITY

The Milwaukee Brewers joined with the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, the home of Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility. Designed by Eppstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, the facility was built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium and was a part of the team that built Miller Park.

The $3.1 million facility was built with the help of a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation as well as $1.1 million from the Miller Park infrastructure budget. In 2012, Helfaer Field received a number of upgrades, including a fresh paint job, new signage and misters for hot summer days.

Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this is the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their games and tournaments. The fences reach 200 feet with walls six feet high with the exception of left field, where the wall is nine feet. The playing surface of Helfaer Field was also replaced in October 2008, giving Little Leaguers the same playing surface that the big leaguers play on inside Miller Park.

The foul poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark has been memorialized on the third base concourse.

The Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation was founded on February 2, 1974, and is dedicated to charitable, religious and educational purposes in Wisconsin and the Greater Milwaukee area. Mr. Helfaer was also an original investor in the Brewers.

Children from the three Brewers' primary youth baseball leagues were on hand in August 2001 to turn the dirt at the groundbreaking ceremony. The Little Brewers League, Girls of Summer Softball League and the Brewers RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner-City) are the three avenues the Brewers offer children from ages 6-17 to play softball and baseball in Wisconsin with over 3,000 taking part statewide. Helfaer Field opened on May 31, 2002, and has been used by hundreds of teams and thousands of children since its inception.

Helfaer Field is available for organized athletic events. The emphasis is primarily to make Helfaer Field available for youth baseball (5-12) and girls softball. However, Helfaer Field is also available for other groups and uses as well.

On non-Brewers home game dates, there will be up to six time slots of two hours each available for rental. On Brewers home dates, there will be up to three time slots at two hours each, and the facility is available for tailgate functions up to three hours prior to games on game days.

For more information on Helfaer Field reservations check out the Club's website at Brewers.com or call the Helfaer Field coordinator at (414) 902-4888.

Beginning May 26, the Milwaukee Brewers will again offer fans a free chance to enjoy Helfaer Field. The ballpark opens 2 1/2 hours prior to the Brewers' first pitch and remains open until game time on all Sundays when the Brewers play at Miller Park during the 2013 season. Kids and adults alike can go out and throw the ball around in the outfield at Helfaer Field. Bats are not allowed.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS IN THE COMMUNITY

BREWERS COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Milwaukee Brewers Community Relations Department is committed to supporting many worthy events and activities throughout the State of Wisconsin. The Club is pleased to give back to dedicated fans that have supported the Brewers throughout the years.

Many charities, educational groups, youth groups and non-profit organizations raise hundreds of thousands of dollars through the support of players and auction items provided by the Milwaukee Brewers. By supporting charitable causes, the Brewers, including players, coaches and front office staff, will continue exercising our pledge to be an active member in the community and help improve the welfare of people throughout our region.

Beyond the Diamond

Beyond the Diamond is a series of community outreach events that will take place during the season. This involves partnering with Brewers Community Foundation, players/coaches, Brewers wives, alumni and team personnel working hands-on in the community. The community events will be funded in part by Brewers Community Foundation and will focus on the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs.

Auction Requests

The Milwaukee Brewers receive thousands of requests annually to assist local non-profit organizations and community and civic groups with in-kind donations for fundraising events. Being an active and contributing member of our community is very important to us, and we make every effort to accommodate requests within our region. In our continuing efforts to "Go Green," we will no longer accept written letters or fax donation requests. All donation requests must be submitted online at brewers.com/donations. Visit brewers.com/donations, where you will find our donation guidelines and the online submission form.

Brewers Alumni Association

The Milwaukee Brewers Alumni Association consists of over 600 players who were members of the Milwaukee Brewers or the Club's forefathers, the Seattle Pilots, during their Major League career. The Association aims to provide an opportunity for the Club's alumni to maintain relationships with former teammates, the organization and Brewers fans.

Brewers On Deck

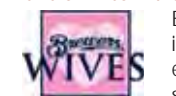

Brewers On Deck is the team's annual fan fest and season preview. Families can enjoy a day full of interactive games, clinics and autographs from players along with the Brewers Community Foundation Treasure Hunt, which features game-worn jerseys, game-used equipment and other Brewers paraphernalia. All proceeds from the treasure hunt go toward the Brewers Community Foundation youth recreation and education programs.

Brewers Community Achievers

This program recognizes everyday people from the local community who have helped their neighborhoods in extraordinary ways. Fans can nominate their Community Achiever online or pick up a nomination form at the Guest Relations booth at Miller Park.

Brewers Wives in the Community

Brewers players' wives play an important role in community outreach efforts with their commitment to several important causes. Brewers players and their wives make appearances at schools, youth groups and hospitals. Many of the players and their wives purchase game tickets and food vouchers for kids or provide direct financial support for youth groups.

Cervceros Day

In partnership with the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Wisconsin, the Brewers pay an annual tribute to Hispanic baseball by taking the field in their "Cervceros" jerseys -

"Cervceros" is the Spanish translation of "Brewers." The Chamber's annual "Fiesta Tailgate", along with bilingual PA announcements, scoreboard features and mariachi bands, give the whole ballpark a Latin flare.

Fatherhood Initiative Day

Brewers staff and alumni host a group of fathers and their children at a home Brewers game. Guests enjoy watching the game in a suite and one lucky kid will throw out the ceremonial first pitch. This unique program is a tie-in with the Mayor's Fatherhood Initiative to bring together the past, present and future by raising awareness about the importance of involved, responsible and committed fathers.

Home Run Fitness Powered by HOPSPORTS

The Milwaukee Brewers provide HOPSports Training Systems for designated schools and youth community organizations throughout Wisconsin. The training systems focus on the importance of physical fitness, nutrition and weight management and are being utilized to train, evaluate, educate and entertain youth of all ages.

Negro Leagues Tribute

As part of our Negro Leagues Tribute, Brewers players wear uniforms inspired by the Milwaukee Bears - the city's 1923 Negro National League team. The game-worn jerseys are signed by the players and auctioned off online. Proceeds from the auction go to Brewers Community Foundation and are earmarked for the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum in Kansas City and Yesterday's Negro League Foundation.

RBI League

The RBI League - Reviving Baseball in the Inner City - is an initiative of Major League Baseball which began more than 20 years ago in Los Angeles. The Brewers have joined many other Major League teams in offering this program, which targets African-American teenagers ages 13 to 15. Brewers RBI teams have competed in regional competition. The Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee, Milwaukee County Parks Department and other local baseball groups are important partners in the league. The Brewers Community Foundation, the Baseball Tomorrow Fund and a designated player provide funding.

RBI Athlete of the Month

Each month, an athlete who is enrolled in the RBI Program (Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities) will be recognized for his dedication to academics, community involvement, leadership, reliability and monthly performance. RBI coaches can nominate their RBI Athlete of the Month online.

S.C.O.R.E. Education Program

S.C.O.R.E. is the organization's youth education and recreation initiative. The acronym stands for School, Community, Opportunities, Role Models and Excellence. S.C.O.R.E. is designed for players, alumni and front office personnel to serve as ambassadors for increasing the impact of our youth outreach efforts throughout the year. Through school visits, kids are able to learn from members of the Brewers organization, providing special moments that they will always remember. The S.C.O.R.E. program will continue to be presented in the future at most assemblies that involve interaction between Brewers staff and area children. Brewers personnel every year make hundreds of appearances at youth-oriented events. For more information, contact the Community Relations Hotline at (414) 902-4800.

S.C.O.R.E. for Excellence Day presented by Gordon Flesch

S.C.O.R.E. for Excellence Day is a joint venture with local schools designed to motivate middle school students to excel in academics, attitude and attendance. The event is a one-day morning visit held in May. Brewers players, coaches and front office staff visit middle schools in the Wisconsin area. They speak to students about the importance of school and community, taking advantage of opportunities, seeking positive role models and striving for excellence in education. Key to the presentation is the use of five baseballs. Each ball features one of the S.C.O.R.E. character messages printed on the side. During the program, players engage children in a dialogue about the importance of these five elements. It is a fun program that opens communication between the children and their role models. All students receive a t-shirt and bookmark.

Youth Baseball Clinics

Each summer, hundreds of youngsters gather at local parks to learn the finer points of baseball. Players and coaches donate their time to help kids develop proper techniques of hitting, pitching, fielding, and base running. The instruction is invaluable with an additional emphasis on sportsmanship and goal-setting.

Brewers Buddies Ticket Program

Last season, thousands of complimentary game tickets were distributed to youth groups and community organizations through this program. The program is made possible through the generosity of season seat holders, ownership, players, sponsors and MLB Commissioner Bud Selig, who provides game tickets to Brewers Community Foundation for distribution to community groups. For more information about participation in this program, call (414) 902-4509.

5K Famous Racing Sausages Run/Walk

Runners and walkers look forward to the annual 5K Famous Racing Sausages Run/Walk held each summer at Miller Park. The 2013 5K Sausage Run/Walk will be held on Saturday, July 20. The event starts and finishes at the Klement's Sausage Haus at Miller Park. Last year 4,000 participants raced with the popular Klement's Famous Racing Sausages, who actually run the entire 5K course. All net proceeds from the annual run/walk support the programs of Brewers Community Foundation. Individual fundraising through Brewers Community Foundation's online tool will provide needed support to Fisher House Wisconsin, a soon-to-be-built facility for injured military and their families on the VA Hospital grounds.

Grant Requests

Brewers Community Foundation provides a significant number of grants each year to non-profit organizations. Our funding efforts strategically extend financial support to non-profits that provide quality programming in the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs, with a particular focus on low income and disadvantaged youth and their families. Grants are generally limited up to $10,000 for Wisconsin-based organizations. For further information on how to submit a grant request please go to Brewers.com/bcf.

Evening with Hank Aaron

Baseball legend and former Braves' and Brewers' great Hank Aaron returns to Milwaukee each year for a special fundraising event held in Miller Park's NYCE Stadium Club and hosted by Brewers Community Foundation. Proceeds from this event are directed to the Hank Aaron Chasing the Dream Foundation, which helps area children fulfill a special talent and realize their full potential. The Evening with Hank Aaron event has raised more than $750,000 with funds donated by Brewers Community Foundation and administered through the Greater Milwaukee Foundation.

Little Brewers Club

The Milwaukee Brewers, Brewers Community Foundation, U.S. Cellular and the Boys & Girls Club of Wisconsin sponsor the Little Brewers Club, a statewide baseball league for children between the ages of six and nine. The program has grown to more than 2,000 children from two dozen Boys & Girls Clubs throughout Wisconsin. Each year the program concludes with a tailgate party at Miller Park.

Scoreboard Recognition Program

Fans can purchase either a Full Scoreboard Message or a Single Line Shared Message during a game at Miller Park through the Scoreboard Recognition Program. Miller Park has been the site of many marriage proposals and birthday wishes through this program. All proceeds benefit Brewers Community Foundation. A scoreboard message form can be requested by e-mailing Meredith Malone at meredith.malone@brewers.com.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR - BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION, INC. CECELIA GORE

Scholarship Programs

Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. is proud to offer three scholarship programs to Wisconsin Students. For further information and how to apply for one of these scholarships, go to www.brewers.com/bcf.

The Allan H. Selig Scholarship Program was created in the name of former Brewers President and current Commissioner of Baseball Allan H. (Bud) Selig. Funding for the scholarships is the result of proceeds donated by Major League Baseball, from the All-Star Workout Day, part of the 2002 All-Star festivities held at Miller Park. Selected candidates will receive $2,500, annually, renewable each year for a total of $10,000 over four years.

The Players/Coaches Scholarship Program is made possible thanks to Milwaukee Brewers players' and coaches' commitment to educational opportunities for youth. This scholarship is a one-year award that varies in amounts from season to season. Generally scholarship awards have been between $1,000 and $2,500.

The Miller Park Community Scholarship Program will provide its first award in 2013. Eligible applicants must be a minority or female student residing in either Milwaukee, Waukesha, Ozaukee, Washington or Racine County. Applicants must also be a student pursuing studies in a design or construction-related field at a technical college, college or university in the State of Wisconsin. Scholarship awards will be of varying amounts based on need.

Thanksgiving Turkey and Christmas Family Feast

The Milwaukee Brewers, Brewers Community Foundation, Feeding America, Hunger Task Force, Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office and 1290 WMCS-AM radio station mark the Thanksgiving holiday season by donating approximately 500 turkeys with the fixings to families in need throughout the Milwaukee community. A combination of players, coaches, broadcasters and front office staff help deliver Thanksgiving baskets in advance of the holidays. The Brewers Community Foundation joins 1290 WMCS and the Salvation Army annually in support of their efforts to feed 10,000 people during the Christmas Family Feast. Toys, hats, gloves and books are distributed to the children who attend this heartwarming annual holiday gathering.

ASSISTANT TO DIRECTOR - STAFF AND PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

TONY DIGGS

Tony Diggs, 45, enters his 10th season in the Brewers organization and eighth in his current position, where he assists with the day-to-day administration duties at the facility in Maryvale, Arizona.

In addition, Diggs will serve his first season as manager at Rookie Helena following five seasons as manager at Rookie Arizona. In 2010, he was named Arizona League Manager of the Year after leading the team to a 34-22 regular-season record and the Arizona League championship.

Previously, he served as a hitting coach in the organization with Class-A Beloit (2004) and Class-A Brevard County (2005).

Prior to joining the Brewers, Diggs was a minor-league hitting coach for the St. Louis Cardinals (1998-99, 2002-03). He also spent two years as director of player development/MLB consultant with the International Baseball League of Australia and was a consultant for Team Australia in the 2000 Olympics.

Selected by the Brewers in the sixth round of the 1989 draft, Diggs played eight professional seasons in the minor leagues with Milwaukee (1989-93) and St. Louis (1994-96). A native of Starke, Florida, he graduated from Santa Fe Community College in Gainesville before attending the University of North Florida. He resides in Goodyear, Arizona, with his wife, Kim, and children, Amber, A.J., Aaron, Andrew, Aidan, Alaina and Addison.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR - PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

DON MONEY

Don Money, 65, is in his second season in his current position. He previously managed 14 seasons in the organization.

Money managed at Triple-A Nashville from 2009-11, where he compiled a 223-209 (.516) record. Prior to that, he spent four seasons as manager at Double-A Huntsville (2005-08), where he led the Stars to the postseason twice (2006-07). In 2007, Money was named Southern League Manager of the Year after guiding the Stars to division titles in both halves of the season. This marked a first in franchise history. For his efforts, he was named manager for the Southern League All-Star Game. Additionally, Money was selected to coach in the All-Star Futures Game at AT&T Park.

Prior to joining the Stars, he managed at Class-A Beloit for seven seasons (1998-2004) and guided the Snappers to the Midwest League Championship Series three times.

Before managing in the professional ranks, Money coached at Sacred Heart Catholic School for five years (1987-91), leading the team to two state tournaments.

LOGO HISTORY

Seattle Pilots (1969)

The Seattle Pilots used this logo for one season before moving to Milwaukee and becoming the Brewers.

Milwaukee Brewers (1970-1977)

The "Barrel Man" logo was the first identity used by the Brewers. It was first used by the original American Association Brewers in the 1940s.

Milwaukee Brewers (1978-1993)

The "ball-in-glove" logo was introduced in 1978 after a contest which was open to the public drew more than 2,000 entries. An art history student at UW-Eau Claire, Tom Meindel, designed the logo that went on to be the winner. The design of the logo was meant to be recognizable on items as small as a button and as large as a billboard.

Milwaukee Brewers (1994-1999)

As the Brewers celebrated their 25th anniversary in Milwaukee, they introduced a new look. Green was incorporated as a color for the first time in franchise history. The logo resembled an industrial stamp, paying homage to Milwaukee's industrial history, and gave the team a modern yet old-fashioned look.

Milwaukee Brewers (2000-PRESENT)

The current logo was introduced during the final season at County Stadium, giving the team a fresh look heading into Miller Park. The classy yet contemporary look was created by McDill Design of Milwaukee along with Major League Baseball Creative Services. The barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the Brewers' name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

RETIRED NUMBERS

HANK AARON

Born: 2/5/34 in Mobile, AL
Position: Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee:
1954-65, 1975-76

"Hammerin' Hank" had his number retired after the conclusion of the 1976 season. Aaron played in Milwaukee from 1954-65 with the Braves and from 1975-76 with the Brewers. He was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1982 after closing out his career with a then Major League-record 755 home runs. He was National League Most Valuable Player in 1957, the year the Braves won the World Series. Aaron hit 40 or more home runs in eight seasons, drove in 100 or more runs 11 times and had a .305 lifetime batting average.

ROLLIE FINGERS

Born: 8/25/46 in Steubenville, OH
Position: Pitcher
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1981-85

The man who made the handle-bar mustache famous had his number "34" retired at County Stadium on August 9, 1992. Fingers, who was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1992, spent five seasons in a Brewers uniform. He made his mark on the baseball world as the game's first relief ace. Fingers took home both the American League Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards in 1981, the first pitcher to accomplish the feat since Oakland's Vida Blue in 1971.

ROBIN YOUNT

Born: 9/16/55 in Danville, IL
Position: Shortstop/Outfield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1974-93

"The Kid" had his number "19" retired at County Stadium during a ceremony on May 29, 1994. Yount played his entire 20-year career with the Brewers after breaking into the big leagues at the age of 18. He won American League Most Valuable Player awards in 1982 and 1989, becoming the third player in Major League history to capture MVP honors at two different positions (Stan Musial/Hank Greenberg). Yount, who collected 3,142 career hits, was the first player to enter the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a Brewer after being inducted on July 25, 1999.

PAUL MOLITOR

Born: 8/22/56 in St. Paul, MN
Position: Infield
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1978-92

"The Ignitor" had his number "4" retired at County Stadium during ceremonies on July 11, 1999. During his speech prior to the game against the Minnesota Twins, Molitor said that should he be voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, he would be honored to enter as a Milwaukee Brewer. Molitor followed through with that commitment as he became the second Brewer to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2004. Molitor's career in Milwaukee spanned 15 seasons and was highlighted by the 1982 World Series and a 39-game hitting streak in 1987.

JACKIE ROBINSON

Born: 1/31/19 in Cairo, GA
Position: Second Base
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in the Majors: 1947-56

The man who broke baseball's color barrier as a Brooklyn Dodger in 1947 had his number "42" retired by Major League Baseball in 1997. The Brewers honored Robinson in special pre-game ceremonies at County Stadium on July 18, 1997. Pitcher Scott Karl (1995-99) was the last Brewer to wear the number.

BOB UECKER

Born: 1/26/35 in Milwaukee, WI
Position: Catcher/Broadcaster
Batted/Threw: R/R
Years in Milwaukee: 1971-present

"Mr. Baseball" had his name placed among the Brewers' retired numbers at Miller Park in a ceremony on August 26, 2005. The ceremony commemorated Uecker's 50th year in baseball. Although Uecker never played for the Brewers, he did play six seasons in the Major Leagues for the Milwaukee Braves, Philadelphia Phillies, Atlanta Braves and St. Louis Cardinals before retiring in 1967. Former Brewers owner and current Major League Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig hired Uecker as an announcer in 1971, a position he has held ever since.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS MEDIA INFORMATION

ADMISSION TO STADIUM

Enter through the south dock located in the right-field corner on the Service Level at Miller Park. Credentials are available for pickup six (6) hours prior to game time. Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) cards or working credentials issued by Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations or Major League Baseball are required for admittance. No other credential will be honored. All bags will be checked by security upon entrance to the park.

BOB BETTS PRESS BOX

The Bob Betts Press Box is located on the Loge Level behind home plate. The main press box, as well as the adjacent radio and television booths, have rolling windows that are either entirely open or entirely closed. The main press box is a smoke-free environment. There are seven radio and television booths that are reserved for both home and visiting announcers. A quiet work room is located immediately behind the press box and should be used during post-game by radio stringers to send sound. An elevator directly behind the press box will transport media directly to the Service Level. This elevator is reserved for media and first aid immediately after the game. The press box is equipped for wireless internet access as well as DSL. Information on accessing the wireless network is posted throughout the press box. The press box is a working area and should be treated as such. The press box is closed to scouts during the game.

CLUBHOUSES

The home clubhouse is located on the service level on the first base side. The visiting clubhouse is located on the Service Level on the third base side. Only properly credentialed media are allowed in the clubhouses. Media is allowed access beginning 3 1/2 hours prior to game time. The clubhouse closes when team batting practice begins and will remain closed through the game. Television cameras are not permitted in the clubhouse prior to the game without approval from the media relations department. The training room, X-ray room, kitchen, weight room and video room are off limits to media. Still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouses without prior approval from the media relations staff. Media are not allowed to use cell phones in the clubhouse.

FIELD

Access to the playing field is available through the runways leading from the respective clubhouses or through the door to the right of the visitor's clubhouse. Only properly credentialed media are allowed on the field. Live or direct transmissions are permitted from the field until 30 minutes prior to game time. The grounds crew and media relations department politely ask media to avoid standing on the grass.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM

The media interview room, located across from the home clubhouse, is a classroom-style facility that features telephone, internet and power service. The room seats 93 media members and contains mult boxes for radio and television usage.

MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICES

The media relations offices are located in the press box at Miller Park. On non-game days, media can visit the offices by going to the Brewers' main office entrance in the right-field corner of Miller Park and having the receptionist call up to the media relations department.

PARKING

To access the parking area, take the Miller Park Way freeway exit off I-94. Exit Miller Park and circle around the ramp. The media parking area is in the staff lot located just south of the south dock entrance. Those with season credentials will receive a season parking pass. Those with single-game credentials will be placed on a list and should check in with a parking attendant at the lot. Parking is extremely limited and available on a first-come, first-serve basis. The staff lot is for working media only. Those abusing this policy will have their parking privileges and credentials revoked. Media are asked to respect their colleagues by only using their season parking passes while working games.

PHOTOGRAPHER INFORMATION

Photo wells are located on the first and third base sides on the field near the dugouts as well as behind home plate. There are also two photo wells located on the Club Level near sections 320 and 339. Dark room facilities are located on the Service Level across from the home clubhouse. Internet lines are available for photographers to transmit their photographs electronically. Wireless internet is also available. Please see connection information posted in the press box.

POST-GAME ACCESS

By rule, clubhouses open no later than 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game. At this time, the home manager will be made available in the media interview room. Only properly credentialed media are allowed access. The elevator behind the press box will be reserved for media immediately following the conclusion of the game.

PRESS HOSPITALITY AND MEALS

Press hospitality is open to those with a BBWAA card or applicable credentials issued by the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations Department or Major League Baseball. Meals will be served beginning 2 1/2 hours prior to game time and full meal service will end 30 minutes after the first pitch. A $10.00 charge is levied for a full meal. Meal tickets can be purchased at the main entrance to the press box. Soda, frozen yogurt and milkshakes are complimentary. The media dining room is located behind the main press box and broadcast booths on the Loge Level. A daily menu is posted series-by-series.

TELEVISION CREWS

Space to shoot game highlights is available upon request. NO LIVE TRANSMISSION is allowed during games inside Miller Park. Additional game highlights are available through the Miller Park Scoreboard Department.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies, subject to the discretion of the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations Department, and can be obtained via the MLB Credentialing website, credentials.mlb.com. All single-game credential requests must be made via the MLB Credentialing website at least 24 hours in advance of the game or their fulfillment cannot be assured. Credentials should be displayed at all times and will be checked by stadium security. Daily credentials can be picked up at the south dock at Miller Park no earlier than six hours prior to game time. Under no circumstances should credentials be transferred from person to person or be used by media who are not working the game. Violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials.

BOB UECKER

Entering his 43rd year behind the microphone as a broadcaster for his hometown team calling games on WTMJ-Radio and the Brewers Radio Network, Bob Uecker celebrates his 58th year in baseball in 2013.

Uecker earned the 2003 Ford C. Frick Award and will forever be recognized in Baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York. On July 27, 2003, he made one of the most memorable speeches in Hall of Fame induction history as he left his audience, including former President George H. Bush, in tears from laughter. Also in 2003, he became a member of the Brewers Walk of Fame, located near home plate outside of Miller Park. He is one of only 16 people who has received this special honor entering 2013. In 2012, Uecker was inducted into the National Association of Broadcasters Broadcasting Hall of Fame during the NAB Show in Las Vegas.

On August 31, 2012, Uecker was given a very special honor as a statue bearing his likeness was dedicated outside Miller Park. The ceremony was attended by celebrities, current and former players, family and friends. Uecker's statue joined those previously dedicated to Major League Baseball Commissioner Allan H. "Bud" Selig and Hall of Famers Hank Aaron and Robin Yount.

Known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker has completed 32 seasons as the team's number one announcer. Uecker is highly respected in the industry, having been inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 2001, where he joined such baseball broadcasting luminaries as Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse, as well as other American icons such as Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles. In May 2011, he was inducted into the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association Hall of Fame.

Uecker has been named Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year five times during his career and was inducted into the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998. Also for his efforts, Uecker was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993. The Hall of Fame was established in 1983 to honor nationally and internationally known performing artists with Wisconsin ties. In 1994, he was elected to the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame. In January 1995, he earned the "Big B.A.T." Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City for his continuing support of former Major League stars who are in need of assistance.

Uecker's big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans, which would alter his life forever. Hirt opened a small nightclub in Atlanta and asked Uecker to come on stage. Hirt was so impressed that he arranged an appearance for Uecker on The Tonight Show, starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making some 100 appearances before Carson retired in 1992. He also made appearances on The Mike Douglas and Merv Griffin Shows, Late Night with David Letterman and as a guest host on Saturday Night Live.

Uecker became a national celebrity and the ABC Network took advantage of his popularity. He made appearances on The Superstars and The Midnight Special, which opened the door for more high-profile appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker's credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, he launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom Mr. Belvedere, which put 122 episodes into syndication. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports and Bob Uecker's War of the Stars.

Uecker was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in popular commercials for the beer during the 1980s. He was also cast as a radio announcer in the movie Major League, which was filmed at County Stadium, and Major League II. Uecker even made appearances in the professional wrestling circuit as he served as a host at Wrestlemania III and Wrestlemania IV, earning him a spot in the WWE Hall of Fame in 2010.

Uecker's experience broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television gained him national recognition as he went on to serve as color commentator for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and the World Series.

Uecker's accomplishments are not limited to the electronic medium. A former catcher who spent six seasons in the Major Leagues, Bob authored a book entitled Catcher in the Wry, a humorous look back on the years he spent with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of his career highlights as a player came in 1964, when he was a member of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals.

Despite his national attention and success, Bob never forgot his roots. His philanthropic efforts benefit several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. In addition, Uecker is an advocate for organizations that battle cystic fibrosis and heart disease, is involved with the Wisconsin Department of Tourism and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

JOE BLOCK

Joe Block joined the Brewers' radio broadcast team last season following more than 10 years working in TV and radio in the NBA, Major League Baseball and Minor League Baseball.

Block hosted DodgerTalk, the Los Angeles Dodgers' radio post-game call-in show in 2011. Prior to that, he handled similar duties for the New Orleans Hornets in the NBA and served as the team's backup play-by-play broadcaster.

Block has called the action for more than 1,000 professional baseball games, including the Jacksonville Suns (2003-06), St. Paul Saints (2001-02), Great Falls White Sox (2007) and Billings Mustangs (2010), among others. He also handled play-by-play for select games during the Expos' final two seasons in Montreal (2003-04).

On television, Block has also handled play-by-play for major college basketball and football for various regional TV networks over the past 10 years.

A native of Roseville, Michigan, and a 1999 graduate of Michigan State University, Block and his wife, Bethany, reside on Milwaukee's East Side with their Wheaten Terrier, ZuZu.

KENT SOMMERFELD

Kent Sommerfeld is in his 28th season as the producer of Milwaukee Brewers radio broadcasts. A Wisconsin native, he has acquired a wide range of experience during his tenure in the broadcasting field.

Sommerfeld has been the radio producer/director for the Marquette University radio network since 1990 and periodically fills in doing men's basketball play-by-play. He was named director of the Marquette basketball radio network in 1999 and does play-by-play for the Marquette University women's basketball radio broadcasts.

Sommerfeld attended the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, where he earned a degree in communications and broadcast journalism. While at Whitewater, Sommerfeld was the sports director of Cable TV-6, a wing of Whitewater's cable system, as well as the co-host of Sports Chat, a sports talk show on WSUW-Radio.

In addition to his radio accolades, Sommerfeld has worked with ESPN's technical staff on several events in the midwest. He also worked at KRBC-TV, the NBC affiliate in Abilene, Texas, as a sports/news photojournalist.

Born in Milwaukee, Sommerfeld attended Brookfield Central High School. Kent and his wife, Karen, reside in New Berlin with their family, Peter, Luke and Donovan.

BRIAN ANDERSON

Brian Anderson was named Brewers play-by-play announcer on January 10, 2007. Anderson begins his seventh season as a Major League broadcaster.

For the past five seasons, Anderson has been tabbed by TBS to do play-by-play for the network's coverage of the postseason. In 2011, he called the Brewers-Cardinals NLCS. In 2010, he was behind the mic for Roy Halladay's historic no-hitter for the Philadelphia Phillies in Game 1 of the NLDS vs. Cincinnati.

Since 2010, Anderson has called network play-by-play for Turner Sports' Sunday MLB on TBS package. He will continue to call selected Sunday national games in 2013. In addition to baseball, Anderson also does NCAA basketball play-by-play for Turner/CBS Sports and Big Ten Network. In March of 2012, he joined CBS Sports' coverage of the NCAA Basketball Tournament and will again cover the Big Dance in 2013.

Anderson joined the Brewers from the Golf Channel, where he was a play-by-play announcer from 2003-06. In his role there, he served as a host for a variety of the network's events, including the PGA Tour and Nationwide Tour. Anderson also worked at Fox Sports Southwest, calling NCAA college basketball from 2002-07 and serving as a sideline reporter for the San Antonio Spurs from 1999-2007, where he saw the Spurs win three NBA Championships.

From 1998-2000, Anderson handled Minor League and Little League Baseball telecasts for ESPN. He received his start in baseball with the San Antonio Missions, the Double-A affiliate of the San Diego Padres, serving as a radio/television play-by-play announcer from 1994-2003.

Anderson played catcher on the nationally-ranked baseball team at St. Mary's University (Texas) and graduated Cum Laude from the school in 1993 with a degree in English-communications. His brother, Mike, had a stint in the majors as a pitcher with the Cincinnati Reds (1993) and is currently a Major League scout in the Texas Rangers organization.

Brian and his wife, Michele, and daughter, Maddy, live in Hartland, Wisconsin.

BILL SCHROEDER

Bill Schroeder returns for his 19th season as color commentator on Brewers telecasts.

Popular with the fans, Schroeder began his career behind the mic as the Brewers' color man after a distinguished playing career. He is familiar with the business of talking baseball, co-hosting Baseball Sunday in 1994 and Talkin' Brewers on WTMJ-Radio from 1998-2000. As a part of his work on the 2007 Brewers Preview Show, Schroeder and the FS Wisconsin team were awarded a regional Emmy Award.

For the past 10 winters, Schroeder has served as the coordinator of Brewers Fantasy Camp. The camp is always a hit, selling out each year at the Brewers' Spring Training home in Maryvale, Arizona.

Schroeder spent eight seasons in the big leagues with the Brewers and California Angels, posting a career-best .332 batting average in 1987. He caught Juan Nieves' no-hitter on April 15, 1987 at Baltimore in the midst of the team's Major League record-tying 13-0 start. In addition, he clubbed a career-high 14 home runs and had 42 RBI in a backup role that season. Schroeder was traded to the California Angels following the 1988 campaign before retiring in 1990.

An active member in the community, Schroeder won the Athletes for Youth Good Guy Award in 1988.

Born in Baltimore and raised in Princeton, New Jersey, Schroeder graduated from West Windsor Plainsboro High School, where he earned All-State honors his junior and senior years. He attended Clemson University, leading the Tigers to the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 1978 and 1979.

"Rock" and his wife, Kate, reside in New Berlin, Wisconsin. He has two daughters, Lindsey and Mallory, and a son named Billy. The couple also has a miniature dachshund named Otis.

filled in as the play-by-play announcer during his time with the team. Following the baseball season, he performs the same duties for the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks.

Coshun is a veteran sportscaster in the state, calling several events for the University of Wisconsin, the Big Ten Network and the ESPN family of networks. He has also handled the WIAA state high school football championships.

As a part of his work on the 2007 Brewers Preview Show, Coshun and the FS Wisconsin team were awarded a regional Emmy Award.

Coshun has worked at NBC affiliates in Eau Claire (WEAU) and Madison (WMTV) and was the sports director at WMTV from 1992-2000. He is a graduate of UW-Whitewater.

DAVE NELSON

Dave Nelson enters his seventh season as an analyst for FS Wisconsin broadcasts. He also serves as the Brewers' director of alumni relations and leads the team's speakers bureau. In his front office role, Nelson maintains a database of former Brewers players as well as organizes events for Brewers alumni.

Prior to his current role, Nelson served as Brewers first base coach from 2003-06. In 2001 and 2002, he was a minor league outfield instructor. Nelson began his Major League coaching career in 1981 with Chicago-AL and later spent time coaching in Cleveland, Oakland and Montreal.

In 1980, he was on the coaching staff at Texas Christian University.

Nelson enjoyed a 10-year Major League playing career from 1968-77. The former outfielder played for Cleveland, Washington, Texas and Kansas City. He was named to the American League All-Star team in 1973.

Born in Fort Still, Oklahoma, Nelson went on to graduate from Junipero Serra High School in California. He attended Compton Junior College for one year and Los Angeles State College for two years. Nelson also served in the Army Reserve for six years. He currently splits time between Bradenton, Florida, and Milwaukee.

Upon graduation, he started building his reputation in the world of sports broadcasting. He began his career as a teleprompter operator for a morning show in St. Louis where he shadowed sports reporters at the station.

Hughes was later hired as a weekend sports reporter for WMAZ in Macon, Georgia. He continued to gain experience in front of the camera and eventually moved to

Des Moines, Iowa, to work for NBC affiliate, WHO. Hughes returned home to St. Louis to work for KPLR before making his way to FS North in Minneapolis, Minnesota. He spent a year at FS North, covering the Minnesota Twins, Minnesota Timberwolves and Minnesota Wild.

Hughes made the transition to FS Wisconsin in February 2009. Over the last four years, he has worked as a reporter and host for FS Wisconsin, covering the regional network's pre-game, sideline, and post-game coverage for the Brewers and Milwaukee Bucks.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS MASCOTS

Perhaps as much a part of Milwaukee's baseball history as the players, Bernie Brewer has become a symbol of what is good about being a fan of the Brewers.

As the official mascot of the Brewers, Bernie Brewer entertains fans young and old from his dugout located in the left-field bleachers.

THE HISTORY OF BERNIE BREWER

The concept of a team mascot first emerged back in 1970 when the expansion team needed to draw more fans to the ballpark. That year, the original "Bernie Brewer," 69-year-old Milt Mason, camped out in a trailer atop the scoreboard in late June, vowing not to come down until a crowd of at least 40,000 attended a game. On August 16, a bat day crowd of 44,387 showed up to bring their adopted hero down from his perch.

The demand for Bernie Brewer grew, and by 1973 he emerged as a character who cheered on the home team from a beer-barreled chalet. He would slide down from his perch into a beer stein following each Brewers home run and victory. Bernie Brewer became a fixture at home games through the Brewers' powerful years, when home runs came with regularity for teams known as "Bambi's Bombers" and "Harvey's Wallbangers."

In 1984, the Brewers rebuilt the bleachers, replacing Bernie's Chalet with a sound tower, sending the mascot into temporary retirement. In 1993, by popular demand, Bernie made a triumphant return and has been a fixture at every home game since. In April 2010, Bernie joined Twitter. He has the largest following of any MLB mascot on the social network. Fans can follow him at twitter.com/bernie_brewer.

KLEMENT'S FAMOUS RACING SAUSAGES

Legend has it that the Klement's Famous Racing Sausages started to take shape in the early 1990s. In their formative years, they were little more than a cartoon running a virtual race every home game on the giant scoreboard in center field at County Stadium.

As the movement began to take shape and a buzz developed about our racing weenies, eventually the Bratwurst (#1), Polish (#2) and Italian (#3) made their debuts out of the left-field corner of County Stadium on selected Sundays throughout the season. What started as a fun way to entertain many of the children attending afternoon games became an instant hit. The three sausages added a fourth when Hot Dog (#4) came on board in the middle of the 1990s.

The race grew in popularity among young and old alike. During the 2000 season -- the final year of County Stadium -- the virtual race was thrown out and the actual sausages began to race every game.

This tradition continued as the Brewers moved across the parking lot to Miller Park in 2001. Running with the Sausages took on a life of its own as having an 'in' with the Club might mean the chance to dive into the costume and scurry along the warning track prior to the seventh inning. Hideo Nomo, Pat Mearns and Geoff Jenkins are just three of the lucky players to boast "Racing Sausage" among their personal accolades.

In 2007, Chorizo (#5) permanently joined the Racing Sausages after a one-game debut in 2006.

MARYVALE BASEBALL PARK

The Brewers return to Arizona for their 16th spring at Maryvale Baseball Park. The facility, which opened in 1998, includes 7,000 permanent seats as well as room for 4,000 on the lawn. The complex features eight baseball fields, including two half-fields. The minor-league players also train at the complex across the parking lot from the Major League facility. In 2013, the Brewers partnered with the City of Phoenix and the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority to begin the first phase of renovations that included improvements to the home clubhouse and front office.

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make this complex a reality. With Maricopa County, the Maryvale County Stadium District and the city of Phoenix providing resources, Maryvale Baseball Park is the foundation for future neighborhood development. The Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department oversees the complex's operations.

The primary architect of the ballpark was Ellerbe Beckett of Phoenix. Their work at Maryvale led to several awards in 1998, including the Architecture Accessibility Award from the Mayor's Commission on Disability Issues; the Citation Award from the Arizona Chapter of the American Institute of Architects; and the Merit Award from the Western Mountain Region of the American Institute of Architects.
